SENATOR LODGE INTRODUCES NEW SUBSTITUTE FOR REPUBLICAN ARTICLE TEN RESERVATION

SIMS SAYS CONVOY WAS THE CHIEF WEAK POINT

His Recommendations for Convoy System Was Ignored For Months He Insists

CONTINUES COMPLAINTS

Only After Repeated Urgings That Plans Were Adopted

(By Associated Press)

Washington, March 12.—Disregard by the Navy Department of his recommendations with regard to adoption of the convoy system was described by Admiral Sims today as "infinitely more serious" in its bearing on the war than other cases of alleged inefficiency cited in previous testimony before the Senate investigating committee.

Admiral Sims said that early in 1917, the allies were compelled by the submarines to adopt the convoy plan for protection of shipping, and that on May 1 he urgently recommended that the United States give its cooperation, but it was not until June 16 that Secretary Daniels replied that he considered American vessels having armed guards were safer when sailing independently.

Finally, on July 22, Sims said, after his repeated urging, the Navy Department accepted the convoy plan.

A misconception of the problem of defending the American coast from submarine raids was partially responsible for failure of the Navy Department to act on repeated recommendations as to operations abroad during the early part of the war, Sims told the committee.

BIG ICE GORGE CAUSES FLOODS ON ALLEGHENY

Broken Ice 20 Feet in Height And Eight Miles Long Moves.

Boats Crushed to Bits And Bridges Damaged by Jam

(By Associated Press)

Pittsburgh, March 12.—An ice gorge twenty feet high and stretching eight miles up river broke loose at Freeport early today, started with a rush down the Allegheny River, ran into the county bridge, moving it ten inches out of line, tore a number of boats from their mooring, washing them down the river into the Ohio and pounding them into splinters on the way.

According to reports, ice in the upper Allegheny is level with railroad tracks and bridges and much damage is expected when it all begins moving down stream.

GERMAN CHARGE PRESENTS NOTE ON MEN WANTED

Wanted Arrest and Trial of Germans in Occupied Area to Spot.

(By Associated Press)

Berlin, March 12.—The German charge d'affaires at London has handed Premier Lloyd George a note regarding the Entente extradition list. It was not until June 16 that Secretary Daniels replied that he considered American vessels having armed guards were safer when sailing independently.

After asserting the Imperial court will be guided only by considerations of justice and will make an impartial inquiry, the note demands that the arrest of Germans in occupied territory on charges similar to those in the list, shall stop, and that those arrested shall be delivered to German courts.

Finally, on July 22, Sims said, after his repeated urging, the Navy Department accepted the convoy plan.

A misconception of the problem of defending the American coast from submarine raids was partially responsible for failure of the Navy Department to act on repeated recommendations as to operations abroad during the early part of the war, Sims told the committee.

Republican Leader is Yielding Somewhat in Effort to Reach Agreement to Ratify.

SAYS CHANGES SLIGHT CONFINED TO WORDING

Declares He Would Not Offer Change if it Made Difference in Substance.

Republicans Expect Vote On Ratification Late Tonight.

(By Associated Press)

Washington, March 12.—A substitute for the republican article ten reservation to the peace treaty was introduced in the Senate today by Republican Leader Lodge.

In general it follows the form of the draft agreed on several days ago in bi-partisan compromise negotiations.

When the reservation was offered it was declared among the republicans that the negotiations had lined up almost enough votes to ratify the treaty on that basis but that final agreement had not yet been reached. Republican leaders planned to obtain a vote late today.

In presenting the substitute Senator Lodge said he did so in the interests of compromise and not because the new draft reported any substantial change in meaning of the reservation.

"I do this," he said, "in full consonance with what I have stated on the Senate floor many times. I do not feel that I should be justified in insisting on defeat of the treaty on mere question of the wording of any reservation. If I thought the modification made any change in substance I not only would not offer it but would vote against the treaty with it included."

WILL ENDEAVOR TO BRING ABOUT WAGE AGREEMENT

Wilson Now Has Report Of Coal Commission Under Consideration.

(By Associated Press)

Washington, March 12.—An effort to compromise the differences between the majority and minority in the bimonthly coal strike commission will be made by President Wilson, it was said today at the White House.

Officials said that neither the majority nor minority report would be made public if there was a probability of bringing the members of the commission to an agreement on their principal differences—the amount of the wage advance and the hours of work.

Officials said today that John White, the miners' representative, had held out for a six-hour day throughout the negotiations between the commissioners in an effort to reach an unanimous agreement. The miners originally demanded a six-hour day and a five-day week.

DRIVE IS CLOSED
140 MEMBERS
ARE ENROLLED

Membership of Y. M. C. A.
Has Passed 500 Mark and Is Still Going Upward.

Officials Make Statement
Praising Spirit Manifested
by Workers.

With the addition of almost 140 new memberships secured through the combined efforts of the Association in their two-day invitation plan solicitation the membership of the Young Men's Christian Association in this city has reached the 500 mark with memberships still coming in.

The last two-day intensive enrollment was the culmination of a solicitation that started last November with the Membership Committee in charge and finally grew into the movement that drew all members of the institution into active enrollment work.

Although full reports were not available Friday, the day following the completion of the drive on Thursday, it was judged that fully 140 new members had been secured by the workers among men whom the Association had never come in contact with before.

Officials of the "Y" and those composing the Membership Committee are inclined to give all honors for the success of the solicitation to the members of the Association who, by their concentrated effort, lent all energy to the cause.

Herbert Brownell, president of the Association, stated Thursday:

"The success of the work of the last few months is due to the unfailing loyalty of the entire "Y" membership—boys and men alike. I have been amazed that so little effort from the Y. M. C. A. officials was required to make an organization which has achieved such splendid results. The men and boys of the "Y" have worked this thing with a truly wonderful zeal, such as is seldom seen in institutional work and all credit is due them."

Officials of the Association are agreed that the Y. M. C. A. in this city is on a better footing in every way than it has ever been since its founding.

"Buffalo Bill" got his sobriquet by killing buffaloes for laborers on the Kansas Pacific railway construction 1857.

REFUSE FILLS
UPTOWN GUTTERS

While the recent rains have helped materially in clearing away the accumulation of refuse which for weeks has caused the streets to be very unsanitary, the gutters are still filled with refuse part of which is held by ice.

It has been impossible to clean some of the gutters because of the ice, which formed in them during the ice sheet early in January and has remained.

Mayor Dahl announces that just as soon as the ice is thawed sufficiently to permit cleaning, that the refuse is to be removed and the streets will then be flushed and placed in a sanitary condition once more.

DEEP INTEREST IN BUILDING PLAN

Announcement that an agent of one of the largest housing concerns in America would be in the city within a few days to explain his method of erecting residences by the score, or hundred if necessary, has aroused a great deal of interest in this city, and many persons have expressed a desire to buy suitable homes if constructed on the payment plan.

Men in touch with the situation believe fully 200 houses could be filled within the present year, and are hopeful of arrangements being made for taking care of the rapidly growing population of the city while the opportunity offers.

FINE FOR HEAVY
COLD ON CHEST

Lady Praises Earle's Hypo-Cod. It Helped Her Husband

"My husband suffered from a very heavy cold on his chest and a severe cough, but Earle's Hypo-Cod surely made him well in a hurry, declared Mrs. Chesser whose address is given below. "A friend of ours had taken Earle's Hypo-Cod and recommended it so highly we bought it and my husband's cough steadily disappeared under its influence. He doesn't have those pains in his chest any more and his appetite came back just grand. I've also taken a little myself as I had stomach trouble bad. My stomach felt like a great big lump was lodged there and so much gas formed and bloated me so much, but just one bottle of this splendid remedy cured me completely and really—it has helped both of us so much I gladly pass the good word along to others," continued Mrs. Chesser, 148, Engler St., Columbus, Ohio.

A heavy cold, chest soreness, cough and watery nose and eyes upsets the whole system. If permitted to linger the blood becomes thin, cheeks pale; appetite vanishes, and dizzy headaches, restless nights and days make life miserable.

Just a pill or dose of salts or some soothing syrup may bring temporary relief but the system should not be permitted to remain in a weakened condition like this. Build up the system. Strengthen the lungs with a consistent treatment. Read the formula on bottle of Earle's Hypo-Cod and ask your doctor about it. Get a bottle tonight.

Earle's Hypo-Cod is sold here by C. S. Haver's and Frank Christopher's drug stores and the leading druggists in all near by towns. Price $1.25 plus 5c war tax.—Advt.

MEN APPROVED FOR TRAINING

Two veterans of the world war, members of M Company, and who received wounds from which they have been partially disabled while fighting in France, were placed in vocational training with local firms Thursday through the Federal Board of Vocational Training representative, Thomas F. Callahan, and Miss Mary Robinson of the local Red Cross chapter.

Kirby McCarty Smith was approved for training in house wiring and electrical repair and will take up his work with the firm of Bryson and Hay on Main street.

Edward McNeal was approved for training in furniture repair and will learn his chosen trade under W. G. Evans on West Court street. McNeal received almost total disablement on his right arm from a gun shot wound which caused the loss of sensation in his hand.

Two additional men were also considered and will probably be placed at training with some firm when the Board's representative again visits the city in about ten days.

COMMISSIONERS POWERLESS TO PROTECT ROADS

Powerless to protect the roads in the face of a law enacted by the legislature a year ago, the county commissioners are forced to remain inactive while heavy trucks plow up the highway softened as the frost leaves the ground.

Section 747 of the General code, which gave the commissioners power to fix the weights to be hauled over the roads on tires of certain width, and by that means furnished protection to the roads, was repealed by the legislature. In its place was enacted Section 7248, which gives such latitude in the use of tires and weights that it is virtually useless so far as protection to the roads is concerned.

In vehicles having iron or steel tires three inches or less in width, a load of 500 pounds for each inch of the total width of the tire surface on all wheels. When the tire of such vehicle exceeds three inches in width an additional load of 800 pounds shall be permitted for each inch by which the total width of the tire surface on all four wheels exceeds twelve inches.

In vehicles having tires of rubber or other similar substance a load of 800 pounds for each inch of the total width of the tire surface on all wheels.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to iron or steel tire horse drawn vehicles when in use upon the streets and thoroughfares of cities, or upon the streets or thoroughfares of villages, except such streets and thoroughfares there in as have been or may hereafter mentioned.

WELL TO DO FARMER

H. W. Boring Says He Is In Better Health Than
He Has Been in Years
Since Taking Tanlac

"Since Tanlac has overcome my troubles I have gained twenty pounds in weight and am in better general health than for years past," was the straight-forward statement made a few days ago by H. W. Boring, a prominent and well-to-do farmer living at Overland Park, Kans.

"During the two years I suffered I tried everything I knew of to get relief, but nothing seemed to reach my case until I tried Tanlac. My appetite was poor and my digestion was so bad I could hardly retain my food. Nothing agreed with me; in fact I was almost a confirmed dyspeptic. My whole system seemed to be out of shape. I would have pains across the small of my back so bad at times I could hardly move around."

"My nerves were all unstrung and I would become upset at the least little thing. I seldom slept well at night and, finally, became so weak and run-down that I lost weight rapidly. I was also troubled a great deal with catarrh and of mornings had to spend a half hour or more clearing up my head."

"This is just the condition I was in when I began taking Tanlac and it certainly has been a blessing to me. It just seemed to be made especially for my case. I improved from the very first. My digestion now is perfect and regardless of what I eat I never suffer any bad after effects.

"The pains across my back have entirely disappeared. The catarrh has left me, too, and my head is perfectly clear. I am no longer nervous and rest well every night. I have regained my lost weight and am feeling better and stronger than I have in years. I am going to keep Tanlac in my house so it will be handy at all times."

Tanlac is sold in Washington C. H. by C. S. Haver and in Jeffersonville by J. B. Davis.

Office Seeking

Whether Herbert C. Hoover is nominated for president or not and even if the demand for his nomination does not grow to proportions which menace the success of the ambitious individuals who are now openly battling for the nominations, he has given utterance to some plain truths which, if not in the present campaigns, are destined soon to bring about a revolution in present-day political methods.

Nothing that Mr. Hoover has thus far said, on the all-important subject of the presidency, has been received with greater favor by the American people than his statement that he was in no sense a candidate; that he is willing to serve his country wherever called; but that he would make no campaign to secure any position of public trust, not even the presidency.

In other words Mr. Hoover believes in the wholesome doctrine that the office should seek the man. He believes that rule should be literally and honestly observed and that the people should be allowed to choose their own servants.

We are going to come back some day—soon now—to obedience to that rule. Failure to observe it is the cause of the greater part of our annoyances incident to bad or incompetent service in public places.

If we had not wandered so far away from that whole some rule history would have written a different report of our activities during the past year than it is now compelled to write.

We have too much politics by aspiring individuals and too little attention to politics by the people and matters are going to get worse in that respect until the people frown down the men who push themselves forward for place and power.

As long as the people permit individuals to go parading up and down the land seeking votes and using their official positions to further their own ambitions they are going to have a "flock" of self-chosen, or boss-controlled individuals from which to choose their servants and they are going to have incompetence and politics, supreme to everything in the public service.

Another Preliminary

Among the other hopes which the near approach of the spring season encourages is that the streets in the business sections of the city will soon be resurfaced with asphalt and in harmony with the just pretensions of this prosperous city of ours.

It will be remembered that the work was carried over from last fall because of the lack of time, before bad weather "set in" to make the necessary and permanent lead connections to water and gas service pipes.

While that preliminary work is rushed forward this spring there is another needed anticipatory work which should be provided for by city officials, and that is the construction of conduit for street intersection signals.

The time has come—indeed it has been here some time—when Washington must discard her village equipment at street intersections. The little old stands and smoky lanterns must go. We must have decent looking lamps. Just what style of lamps and what kind of equipment is not important now. That can be settled later on, but the wires for the current can be laid in a conduit and a cap put on until we get ready to attach the appliances.

That precaution will do away with digging up the new streets or using a cross-road appliance as a makeshift.

Our Enormous Debts

We are now informed that the combined debt of the nations is two hundred billions of dollars. Comment on what the staggering total of indebtedness means is useless, indeed impossible, because we cannot even comprehend what it is.

Humanity seems not only to have pledged all its money to pay the cost of war, most of its property, but its earning capacity as well, for generations to come.

As a matter of course the people owe that debt to themselves. They incurred it, they spent the money, they absorbed bonds, they loaned the money, they must carry the loan and, in the end, they must pay it back to themselves.

Carrying the burden and liquidating the enormous debt is largely a matter of bookkeeping and can be made either a benefit or a load too heavy to carry, depending on the wisdom and the patriotism of the financiers and the statesmen.

If we stop in our every-day life and think of paying off the obligations, business would come to an end. The nations could not pay their debts in money. They need not do so. It can be made the basis for a new financial system.

POETRY FOR TODAY

AFTER SCHOOL.

When home from school's long day he drifts
And to my gaze his fresh face lifts, read the tale of all the joys
And sorrows that are every boy's—
I knew them once. I feel them yet,
Through later living's deeper fret,
But still I hold him close and say
Son, tell me all about your day."

He tells me—whimpering o'er each grief,
And laughing next in quick-relief:

The big, bad boy who hid his hat;
The girl who slipped from where she sat;

To meet with Teacher's well-earned frown;

And now the littlest boy fell down!

I list—not that I do not know,

But only that I love him so.

When, at life's troublous school days close,

Each world-worn pupil homeward goes,

Straight to the Father's eyes we'll raise
Our own, prepared for blame or praise.

He'll slip an arm around and say:

"Child tell me all about your day."

Not that our Father does not know,

But only that He loves us so.

RESULTS ARE AMAZING SAYS THIS WOMAN

"I Can Feel Vola-Tonic Helping Me," Says Mrs. Nageliesen

Although Mrs. Emma J. Nageliesen, of Apartment No. 5 at 333 West Ninth street, Cincinnati, O., has taken less than one bottle of Vola-Tonic, "Builder of Strength," she says the results already are amazing.

To illustrate how Vola-Tonic built up her strength Mrs. Nageliesen told of the difference she can notice now while doing her sweeping.

"Sweeping used to tire me out but since Vola-Tonic built up my strength it is easy for me," she said.

"I was run down and weak and nervous before I took Vola-Tonic. My appetite was very poor and the little food I did eat didn't digest right. I felt so bad that at times I could hardly get about and my work was becoming harder and harder.

"Vola-Tonic's work is amazing. I haven't taken all of the first bottle yet but I can just feel it helping me and am getting better all the time.

"My appetite has come back and I can properly digest the food I eat now so that it does me good. The weakness and nervousness is disappearing and I am gaining in strength and already am so much stronger that the housework is a great deal easier.

"I am convinced that Vola-Tonic is all it is represented to be and I do not hesitate to recommend it to everybody."

If you are feeling weak and run down get Vola-Tonic, "Builder of Strength"—TODAY!—and get real health and vigor.

Vola-Tonic is being especially introduced at Christopher's, and in Jeffer sonville by J. B. Davis.—Advt.

RANDOM NOTES— SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

The latest feminine entry in the political field is Mrs. Carrie Jacobs Bond. To identify her it is necessary only to say that she is the author of "The End of a Perfect Day". That is far from being the only thing she ever did, but it seems this is the number she is destined to wear for the balance of her life.

Until the present century got well into its stride it seemed to be the fate of authors, poets, musicians and artists of almost every sort to toil in seclusion for small reward and only such fame as came to them at second hand. The poet stuck to his dreams; the musician to his class in piano forte.

Now we have D'Annunzio as dictator of Plume, Paderewski as the recent premier of Poland, Dunsany as a veteran of the trenches, Augustus Thomas as a political orator of parts, Gutzon Borglum, sculptor, as a publicist, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle as a propagandist of spiritualism and scores of other leaders in this or that movement, large or small, far removed from the cloister and their own fields of endeavor.

Underneath the humor of the following little squib as culled from the New York Sun lurks a happy suggestion for family harmony:

The elevator ascended even more slowly than usual, and Albert, the attendant, "registered" a listening attitude. The Woman was a bit impatient to reach her floor; the hands of her watch showed just enough time to dress for a dinner engagement. "Goodness, Albert, what is the matter with this elevator?" she asked. Albert turned his shining countenance her way as he replied, "Doan ya heah de music, Miss?" The Woman did hear the strains of a Chopin nocturne, well played. "Ain't hit purty! Hit's de lady an' de gent'man o n de fo'f lo'—she plays de pianner, an' he plays de violin, an' hit soun' jes' as peaceful! Ain't no disruptin' in dat family; no, Miss!"

"Girls that giggle in offices, girls that use the office telephones for beans-talks, girls that insist on turning their full powers of fascination on the boss when all that he wants them to do is hurry along with the dictation are going to have a word of advice dropped in their composite ear presently by their older sisters, who have already made a place for themselves in the world of affairs. The latter intend to help the "flappers" in the spring crop of business school graduates to profit a little by their experience.

"Not everything that it is necessary to know if one is to succeed in a business office is taught in preparatory school or business courses," said Miss Elizabeth Sibley, president of the club. "There are questions of dress and deportment which are most important. Older women who have gone through the stage of office work, which these girls are just entering, can give them a word or two of advice which we feel should be of some value.

"We don't intend to ask girls to adopt a rigid style of dress, but merely to suggest that the office is not the place to wear afternoon tea costumes. A great many girls need this advice badly.

"Department in an office is just as important as dress. Talking a great green and suggestion of St. Patrick's day effectively used.

The shower took place in the dining room, entered through green and white porters at the double doors. Green streamers were garlanded over the table, coming from the corners of the room to be caught by a big bow to the chandelier. A variety of most acceptable gifts filled a large white basket the handles tied with green bows, and placed in the center of the table.

The appetizing refreshments served introduced the green and white. Shell pink carnations, white hyacinth and greenery adorned the living room, where, following the shower, Victrola music, a contest and merry sociability rounded out a most enjoyable evening.

Miss Gladys Downs, winner of a pretty piece of China in the contest, presented it to the bride. Mr. Arthur Freshour won the consolation.

Mrs. Downs was wearing a becoming gown of navy blue serge and the bride was handsomely attired in a costume of brown velvet and crepe de chine.

Half a hundred women were indebted to Miss Del Lanum and Mrs. J. A. Worrell for a most delightful "Bridge" Thursday afternoon.

The cordial hospitality of the entertainers which permeated the Lanum home and the particularly delicious collation which followed the game were marked features of the afternoon's pleasure.

Mrs. George Worrell and Miss Mary Wade assisted.

The Wall Street Club of New York, an organization of women who fill substantial positions in the financial district of the metropolis, is leading in a movement to help younger girls start in business life.

Concerning this movement the New York Sun says:

"Girls that giggle in offices, girls that use the office telephones for beans-talks, girls that insist on turning their full powers of fascination on the boss when all that he wants them to do is hurry along with the dictation are going to have a word of advice dropped in their composite ear presently by their older sisters, who have already made a place for themselves in the world of affairs. "We don't intend to ask girls to adopt a rigid style of dress, but merely to suggest that the office is not the place to wear afternoon tea costumes. A great many girls need this advice badly.

"Department in an office is just as important as dress. Talking a great deal, visiting around from one desk to another and the use of the telephone for long personal conservations is objectionable since it interferes with the work of the office."

Then one day a murder of a little girl was reported to the office and there was no reporter on hand to cover it. In desperation the managing editor asked Miss Conkright to do the murder story. She went at her task and just like all the movie heroines she came back with a complete story and even the name and description of the slayer.

ASKS $50,000 ADDITIONAL FOR NEW POSTOFFICE

Former Congressman J. D. Post of this city, through whose efforts an appropriation of $80,000 was made for the construction of a new postoffice building in this city, has caused an application to be made for an addition of $50,000 to construct a suitable addition at this point.

It will be recalled that purchase of the lot, corner of Hinde and West Market street took a large sum out of the original $80,000, leaving $69,000 or $65,000, so that if the additional $50,000 is allowed the building at this point will be erected at a total cost of $130,000 for building and lot.

When building work will be started is not known, as virtually all building operations of the kind were suspended during the period of the war, and may not be resumed for sometime to come.

The application for the additional $50,000 has not been allowed.

SAYS WOMEN MAY GET TO VOTE IN APRIL PRIMARY

Columbus, O., March 12.—Secretary of State Smith, in forwarding to the board of elections the April primary ballot forms, instructed boards to bear in mind the possibility of women voting.

In case referendum petitions against the Reynolds presidential suffrage bill are not filed by April 20, women will vote and boards will have to get a double number of ballots printed.

It became known yesterday women, under the Reynolds act, will vote for delegates to the state conventions as well as national delegates.

The chief object of the state conventions will be to select presidential electors, it was explained at the secretary of state's office, so that if women have the right to vote for the electors they logically should be permitted to help nominate them. They cannot vote, however, at the August primaries, which are entirely a state affair.

FIELD LECTURER WILL SPEAK HERE

Professor J. A. Harbaugh, instructor in agriculture in Washington High school received a letter from C. R. Wagner, National Field Lecturer for The National Agricultural Limestone Association of Columbus, asking if it will be possible to affect an arrangement whereby he may speak to the Smith-Hughes Agriculture class on the subject, "A Permanent System of Agriculture".

Professor Harbaugh has deemed it a lecture worthy of any one's consideration and has extended the invitation to hear the talk to any farmer interested. Although Mr. Wagner is not a state speaker he has the same function of the State Agricultural department.

The date for the lecture will be fixed within a few days.

WITHDRAW TRUCKS TO SAVE ROADS

The Dahl Campbell Branch of this city Friday afternoon announced the voluntary withdrawal of all of its trucks from the highways until the frost has left the ground and the roads are in better condition.

Members of the Fayette County Automobile Club generally are to follow the same plan, it is understood, and in this way expect to do much toward saving the roads.

POPULATION OF LONDON 4,200

London is not the only one of the 100 or more Ohio villages and cities to be disappointed over the 1920 census returns. While London—which was given a population of 3530 in the 1910 census—has advanced more in material welfare in the past ten years, than any other decade during the life of the village, yet the population has not increased up to the expectancy. The 1920 census will probably show very close to 4200 instead of between 4500 to 5000. The location of the Ohio penitentiary and the Ohio Cities' Gas manufacturing establishment and several other factories, now in progress, will no doubt double the population of our village during the next decade.—Madison Democrat.

BOOZE POURED INTO SEWERS.
Steubenville, O., March 12.—Hundreds of quarts of costly wine and cordials, relics of the "good old days", were poured into sewers. The bonded liquors were secured by prohibition enforcement officers in a raid on the home of Mike Topich, who was fined $300 and costs.

MONTHLY CROP STATISTICS IN STATE OF OHIO

The State-Federal joint crop report shows that 19 per cent of the 1919 crop 10,343,600 bushels of wheat still remained on farms in Ohio on March 1, compared to 15 per cent or 6,532,000 bushels a year ago, and 22 per cent or 9,051,000 bushels on the same date two years ago. 30,486,400 bushels or 56 per cent of the 1919 crop has been or will be shipped out of the county where grown, compared to 16,848,000 of the 1918 crop.

Thirty-eight per cent of the 1919 crop, or 61,864,000 bushels is reported to be still on farms, compared to 29 per cent, or 37,584,000 bushels a year ago, and 41 per cent or 61,541,000 bushels two years ago on March 1. Shortage of labor and bad weather have delayed husking and much corn still remains in the shock. The quality of the 1919 crop was excellent, 87 per cent of the crop being reported as merchantable. 27,676,000 bushels have been or will be shipped out of the county where grown, compared to 16,548,000 bushels of the 1918 crop.

Thirty-five per cent of the 1919 cat crop still remained on farms March 1, or compared to 36 per cent or 26,928,000 bushels a year ago. Of the total 1919 crop it is estimated that 18,150,000 bushels will enter commercial channels, compared to 26,684,000 of the 1918 crop.

Farm Land Values in Ohio.
The tabulation of county statistics from a questionnaire sent out widely throughout the state on March 1, show some rather interesting results. The value of land with buildings shows an average of $130 for the state ranging from $25 in Vinton county to $325 an acre in Cuyahoga.

HARTMAN THEATER (Columbus, Ohio)

Madame Bertha Kalich will be the attraction at the Hartman theatre, Columbus, Ohio, during an engagement of three days, beginning Monday night, March 15. She will be seen in the original metropolitan production of "The Riddle: Woman", which has scored one of the dramatic triumphs of the season, having been a Broadway success for seven months, with three additional in Chicago. The story of the play, which is extremely up-to-date, has to do with the social conventions as such things are looked upon by the more reasoning and better qualified citizens of a rapidly-becoming democratic world. Madame Kalich has been provided with a role that calls for the full scope of her dynamic acting as well as those scenes of suppressed emotion in which she revels. The stage settings of "The Riddle: Woman" and the gowns of the women of the cast make it one of the most pretentious productions presented in years. The star is supported by a cast of exceptional distinction, including, as it does, Charles Millward, Frank Burbank, Adele Klaer, Jack Roseleigh, Paget Hunter, Alice Haines, Esther Morgan, Jane Seymour and Lottie Salisbury. There will be a matinee on Wednesday. Mail orders received now.

Ruth Chatterton, one of the most beloved of the younger actresses of the American stage, comes to the Hartman for the final three days of the week, beginning Thursday night, March 18, and with a Saturday matinee. Her present vehicle, presented under the direction of Henry Miller, is "Moonlight and Honeysuckle", a play by George Scarborough, and one of those delightful comedies of American life that put everybody in a good humor. It is a smart comedy, right up to the minute, and has an abundance of witty and brilliant lines. The three scenes are laid in the home of Senator Baldwin of Arizona, in Washington D. C. Miss Chatterton has built an enviable record for herself with the play-going public. Recall, if you will, "Daddy-Long-Legs", "Come Out of the Kitchen" and "A Marriage of Convenience" and now add this new and splendid vehicle. Mail orders are now being received in large numbers.

WAGING WAR ON CORN BORER

Washington, March 12.—The enormous value of corn, the premier crop of the nation, has made it necessary for the government to take all possible precaution to prevent further infestation from the European "corn borer" which is supposed to have entered the country in shipments of broom corn and has obtained a limited foothold in the eastern part of the country.

Large sums are being spent in an effort to control it and a ruling soon is expected from the Federal Horticultural Board as to whether a quarantine shall be imposed against all foreign countries to prevent entrance of stalks and ears of Indian corn, broom corn or other plants that may bring the borers. It would not apply to shelled corn or the thrashed seeds of the other plants.

BINCKLEY BEATS MASKED MARVEL

Binckley lost the first fall to the Marvel in 1 hour and 8 minutes, but took the second after 10½ minutes by using an armlock. The third and final fall went to Binckley in 12 minutes. A double arm lock was used.

PAIR OF THUGS STAGE HOLD-UP VICTIM FIGHTS

Columbus Avenue Again
Scene of Daring Attempt At Highay Robbery.

Ira Bailey, Knocked to His Knees by Bandit, Lands
Blow Upon His Assailant.

When he stepped into the alley beside the Burns' Grocery on Columbus Avenue about seven thirty o'clock Thursday evening Ira Bailey, section man on the Pennsylvania railroad in this city residing at the corner of Temple and Blackstone Avenue, was attacked by two men who failed in their attempt at robbery after Bailey offered strenuous resistance. It was the second hold-up since last Sunday when Loren Stewart, of Columbus Avenue, was knocked senseless and robbed.

Bailey started to take a short cut to his home and stepped into the darkness when two forms suddenly appeared and he was struck on the head with what is thought to have been a pair of knucks. He fell to his knees but jumped to his feet and struck the man in the face with his fist who had delivered the blow. The man fell back but his companion drew a gun and snapped it on Bailey. By this time the noise of the scuffle and the shouting of the attacked man had attracted the attention of Tom Burns and the assailants took flight.

Bailey told the police he had about $18 in his pocket. He was able to give a fair description of his assailants and states that they were comparatively young men of ordinary height and build. Bailey claims that he will know the man he struck in the face if he sees him again.

Police are inclined to believe the same men who assaulted the Stewart lad are the ones who attempted to rob or even kill Bailey Thursday evening. The manner of attack, in striking him a blow on the head, is identical with the manner by which young Stewart was disposed of last Sunday evening.

As a result of the second assault by footpads in this city within a few days time, citizens are becoming thoroughly aroused and are looking to the authorities to make extraordinary efforts to locate the thugs and bring them to justice with as little delay as possible.

REPORT FARMERS PLAN CO-OPERATIVE STOCK SHIPMENTS

Rumors are in circulation that plans are on foot for organization of a Farmer's Co-operative Shipping Association to handle live stock by selling direct to the main markets.

So far no definite information has been obtained regarding the proposal, although it is learned that such a move has been contemplated and may soon be worked out and the organization placed into effect.

The farmers back of the move are said to include some of the largest shippers in Fayette county, and they plan to ship direct to Pittsburg, or other markets agreed upon, without passing through the hands of local stock brokers.

FIRST ELECTRICAL STORM OF SEASON

The first electrical storm of the season occurred Friday morning, and in some parts of the county the storm was fairly heavy.

The rainfall, coupled with that of the past few days, has caused the roads to become very bad once more.

McNair Memorial Church will have a food sale at Chas. Johnson's Auto Sales place, Saturday, March 13.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of cinnabar. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, colds, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, callosities, fisted feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependible.

30c and 60c jars hospital size $2.50.

For aches and pains, strains and sprains and all muscle soreness rub on Begy's Mustarine for quickest relief.

Sore Throat Chest Colds

often disappear over night when this wonderful yellow mustard preparation is used.

"HEAT EASES PAIN" don't forget that and when you feel its decided warmth—remember that HEAT is absolutely necessary to reduce the inflammation and scatter congestion—of course it cannot blister.

Generous box 30 cents.
